Chaim Goldman is the President and Creative Director of Kingdom Consulting, through which he provides professional level one-on-one, corporate/ministry, and group business coaching from a solidly Biblical perspective.

Chaim is a serial entrepreneur, technologist, teacher, and speaker, with more than thirty years of experience in marketing and video production. He has an absolute passion for great storytelling, and a vision to see the people of God walk in their Kingdom callings, especially in the realm of business.

Married in 2002, Chaim and his wife, Dr. Kim Goldman, are both Jewish followers of Messiah Y'shua (Jesus) and teach on the Hebrew Roots of the Christian faith through their family ministry, Repairing the Breach. They also co-founded Biblical Health TV (for which Chaim serves as CEO and Executive Producer), an organization that ministers body, soul, and spirit health to Believers worldwide. The Goldmans pursue a naturally healthy, Biblically-based lifestyle with their six young children whom they homeschool.

Chaim has combined the gems of both his three decades of professional experience and his twenty year walk as a Believer to produce unique coaching systems. His style and methods are specifically designed to expertly guide Kingdom-minded entrepreneurs to achieve excellence in their lives, businesses, and ministries.
